Sarasota Area Key Information Sheet

Anna Maria Island is surrounded by water. Anna Maria Island's seven and one-half miles of magnificent white-sand beaches extend from Tampa Bay in the north to Longboat Key Pass at its southernmost tip. Each of three small villages—Anna Maria in the north, Holmes Beach at mid-island and Bradenton Beach to the south—boasts its own special character.

Longboat Key span crosses through both Sarasota and Manatee Counties. Today's Gulf of Mexico Drive is the magnificently landscaped thoroughfare that Ringling had imagined to run the full length of Longboat Key. It winds past splendid homes and condominiums, lush greenways and parks, hidden driveways and side streets, yacht basins and captivating stretches of the Gulf of Mexico. Along both sides are discreet shopping plazas—filled with upscale shopping and fine dining—and the emerald-shaded fairways that comprise the two championship courses of Longboat Key Club.

St. Armands Circle, Lido Shores and Lido Key nestles like a singular jewel in a perfect setting. Hugging the Gulf of Mexico, Sarasota Bay and New Pass, its picturesque locale provides the perfect backdrop for dramatic, upscale homes created by Sarasota's most talented architects and designers. Bayside homes feature shimmering views across Sarasota Bay and spectacular after-dark vistas of Sarasota's ever-changing skyline.

Bird Key sporting deep water canals, its own private yacht club and spectacular bayfront homes—many with their own deep water dockage. Today's Bird Key is a fashionable island neighborhood with sparkling vistas that begin at sunrise and end with blazing sunsets over the Gulf of Mexico. At night, the expansive Sarasota skyline glistens to life across a shimmering expanse of Sarasota Bay.

Siesta Key will captivate you the moment you step onto its world-famous powdery white beaches. From sunrise to sunset, Siesta Key's displays its unsurpassed beauty to thousands of residents and tourists throughout the year. Head slightly further inland and you'll discover Siesta Village, complete with eclectic shops, fine restaurants and plenty more to see and do. Venture down Siesta's side streets and you'll find everything from gulf front condominiums, villas and apartments to magnificent seaside estates.

Casey Key is a spectacularly lush barrier island 15 miles south of Sarasota. Casey Key stretches from Siesta Key on the north to the Island of Venice at its southernmost tip, allowing boaters and fishermen easy access to the Gulf of Mexico. Residential real estate opportunities consist almost entirely of single-family homes and opulent waterfront estate homes.

Manasota Key is a captivating barrier island with just a two-lane road, pristine beaches and a variety of unique residential opportunities. There are low-rise multi-family condominiums and apartments on the south end of the island. The north end has private homes on one-acre lots, tucked behind lush tropical foliage.

Sarasota Area Golf Information Sheet

The Concession located on Florida's Gulf Coast. Here amid ancient oak hammocks, only 236 magnificent homes will grace the 1,200-acre reserve. This extraordinarily private community will be a worthy complement to the unique experience of The Concession Golf Club and its Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course.

Lakewood Ranch Country Club is prized for its prestigious location, secure gated entrance and neighborhoods that center on its prestigious Arnold Palmer-designed Legacy Golf Course. Here, homebuyers enjoy luxury and comfort amid an impressive array of single-family homes.

University Park Country lush landscaping emulates a botanical garden surrounded by the award-winning University Park Country Club. Here, challenging golf, tennis and croquet are just a small part of the lifestyle that includes an active calendar of special events and numerous social activities. Convenience is also a hallmark of University Park. Downtown Sarasota, the airport and Lakewood Ranch are just minutes away, as are exciting new shopping and restaurant venues.

Meadows is ideally situated east of downtown Sarasota, near I-75. Offering numerous amenities—including golf, tennis, racquetball and biking—The Meadows is noted for its immaculately maintained and environmentally rich resort-style atmosphere. Developed by Taylor-Woodrow Homes, this mature country club community features a wide range of neighborhoods. Over 3,400 residences—including garden homes, villas and single-family homes—are nicely distributed in a beautiful, 1650-acre setting.

Prestancia is home to two championship golf courses, including the prestigious Tournament Players Club, Prestancia continues to maintain its position as one of the most coveted communities in Sarasota for luxurious country club living. Prestancia's collection of prestigious homes is divided between several smaller distinct neighborhoods. Styles of architecture vary by neighborhood with choices that include single family homes on large home sites, two and three bedroom villas, low-rise condominiums and maintenance-free homes.

Laurel Oaks Country Club features two Gary Player championship golf courses amid a pristine environment of wetlands and nature preserve. Designed with privacy in mind, residents enjoy golf and tennis, a 30,000 sq. ft. clubhouse, a dynamic social calendar with planned activities for all ages, and a junior Olympic-size swimming pool. Homes in Laurel Oaks Estates are spacious and impressive, ranging from three bedrooms with 3,000 sq. ft. to six bedroom estates with 7,000 sq. ft.

The Oaks is opulent country club community, set on 1,000 acres east and west of North Tamiami Trail, includes three distinct neighborhoods. Members of The Oaks Club enjoy a 36-hole facility of championship golf. Additionally, there are 12 Har-Tru tennis courts, and trees of roses. The Oaks have just completed an $11 million investment.
